

For Release, July 25, 2010, Contact: Suzanne Corcoran, Corcoran Jennison, scorcoran@corcoranjennison.com

Robert J. Newman and Ocean Edge Resort & Golf Club Receives Latham Center Award

Brewster, MA: The Latham Centers in Brewster has awarded Robert J. Newman and Ocean Edge Resort & Golf Club the Roy T. Morgan Award, the highest honor bestowed by Latham Centers to an organization for their outstanding contribution to individuals with disabilities. Nationally known and providing innovative treatment in Brewster, Latham Centers has been providing services since 1970, helping young people and adults who face tough challenges become responsible members of their communities.

"Bob has been incredibly generous to Latham Centers, from hosting many year-end celebrations and our Yawkey Lighthouse Dormitory Reception, to providing meetings space and conference accommodations and the venue for our First Annual Charity Golf Classic this October. Each event has been outstanding and the staff and facilities at Ocean Edge exceptional. Bob has also been an active voice at Board meetings and involved member of our Finance and Strategic Planning committees," said Anne McManus, the Executive Director of Latham Centers.

Now President of Corcoran Jennison Hospitality Company, Mr. Newman has been the General Manager of Ocean Edge Resort and Golf Club for the past three years. Ocean Edge is a 429-acre resort, featuring 334 guest villas and hotel rooms, 15,000 square feet of meeting space, and a turn-of-the-century Mansion and Carriage house overlooking Cape Cod Bay.

In 2008 Mr. Newman was the recipient of the Cape Cod Chamber of Commerce Business Excellence Award for his many contributions to the Cape Cod community.

Mr. Newman lives in Plymouth, MA with his wife Kristen and their two children.