BREWSTER, MA (April 8, 2013) Ocean Edge Resort & Golf Club, Cape Cod's leading family vacation and wedding destination, announces the relaunch of the Mansion side of the resort, part of a $40 million renovation of the entire property, which is now complete. The Mansion at Ocean Edge is now the most luxurious destination on the Cape offering exclusive Concierge services and direct access to the resort's private beach.

The relaunch of the Mansion side introduces 31, two- and three- bedroom Presidential Bay Collection villas (formerly the Bay Pines Villas), on or close to the beach and 90 Mansion Guest Rooms that were completed in Spring 2012.

“The Presidential Bay Collection on the Mansion side combines the best of modern elegance with our legendary historic setting behind the Mansion,” said Robert J. Newman, President of Corcoran Jennison Hospitality, which owns and manages Ocean Edge. “This landmark renovation, together with recent, major investments in a host of resort amenities, enables us to attract guests from all over the world to the natural beauty and spirit that defines Ocean Edge, the town of Brewster, and Cape Cod.”

The Presidential Bay Collection villas, which range in size from 1,000- 1,600 square feet, feature layers of detail in bedding, built-ins, artwork and accent features that bring a modern feel to the beach side villas, while maintaining a nod to the traditions of Cape Cod. Other highlights include:

- Waterfront townhouse accommodations with sweeping views of Cape Cod Bay from living rooms and upstairs master bedrooms.

- Spacious two- and three- bedroom villas featuring dining areas with freshly appointed custom banquettes, fireplaces in the living room, natural tile flooring and custom area rugs and washer/dryer in every villa.
- Personal Concierge who in addition to regular concierge services, will touch base with the guest prior to arrival, welcome them at check in, escort them to their villa and get them settled, check in regularly while they are in-house, and be their connection to the property and the area restaurants and attractions.
- Kitchen areas stocked with gourmet essentials such as Voss water, milk, orange juices, a selection of soda, Haagen Dazs ice cream, a bottle of red and white signature Ocean Edge wine, and s'mores fixings.

The renovated Mansion Wing guest rooms feature:

- Romanticized bedding, with drapery treatment at the headboards, custom embroidery on pillows and duvets by well-known textile designer Andrew Morgan.
- Custom entertainment centers, offering guests flexible work and dining space flanked by shelving containing flat screen televisions, books, games and artifacts relevant to the Cape.
- Enhanced dressing rooms with additional sink and vanity area and customized closets.

Interior design was provided by Linda Snyder Associates, Inc., the acclaimed interior design firm based in Torrance, Calif. “The Presidential Bay Collection and the Mansion Guest Wings really come alive with texture and detail that embody a Cape holiday, but with a fresh and modern approach to color and styling,” said Lynda Snyder, whose renowned interior design work includes St. Regis Deer Crest Resort in Park City, Utah; Jurys Boston Hotel, which is now the Back Bay Hotel; Georgian Hotel in Santa Monica, Calif.; and Hotel Abrego in Monterrey, Calif.
